Fete Allocks at Langdon

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allock were honored guests at a Community and L.O.O.F. picnic supper held on Sunday evening, August 3, on the lawn at Mr. and Mrs. Whitney's. The tall trees and caribana hedge made a perfect shelter from the wind, but not from the setting sun, which cast its rays on the many tables covered with white cloths.

Seated at the head table with relatives and close friends were the honored guests. Before supper was served to over 100 guests, the Duxology was sung, following which everyone enjoyed a sumptuous meal.

After supper Mr. Whitney spoke of Mr. Allock's life in Langdon where he has been associated for 39 years. It has been the L.O.O.F. Agent here for 21 years and has held office in many local organizations, one of which is the L.O.O.F. On behalf of the community, Mr. Whitney presented Mr. and Mrs. Allock with an electric mantle clock and to Mr. Allock a shaving brush and razor from the L.O.O.F.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Allock thanked their many friends for such lovely gifts, and spoke of the many happy years they spent at Langdon. They hoped their friends would still come to Monday of this week the 1947 Canadian Wild Life Show played in Strathmore, moving on to Gleichen on Tuesday.

While the attendance in Strathmore was rather disappointingly small, owing in a large measure to the poor weather, there was quite a good crowd in Gleichen, and the affair was topped off by a dance sponsored by the Canadian Legion.

Outstanding attractions of the show to the youngsters were Linda, the African ring-tailed monkey, and Lampy the tame coyote pup, which follows only a trainer like a dog.

We imagine that merely watching the animals in the cages would be boring, but anyone who was fortunate enough to tour the cages in company with Mr. Ody would find the animal show a decided attraction, and most interesting. One commentator said that he had learned more of animals in that trip than he could remember to have known previously.

Mr. and Mrs. Skogg and children of Vancouver are spending a few days with Mrs. Skogg's sister, Mrs. Loy Wheeler and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Aitkens and family moved into their new home on Monday and are busy getting settled.

CANADIAN LEGION

The August meeting of the Legion was very well attended, considering the time of year. It was gratifying to see so many of the older veterans out.

In honour of the late Comrade George MacLean, the chair to the right of the President was draped with the Union Jack. To the vicinity of the Executive created by his death, Mr. Jack Short was elected by acclamation. This was a happy choice as George MacLean and Jack Short were very close friends.

Two new members, Ernest Wright and William Naylor, were admitted to membership.

A suitable gift was presented by Andrew Scott to Neil Weaver as a token of good wishes on his recent wedding.

Following the business the members indulged in cards or engaged in a sing-song, with Harold Payne at the piano.

All present voted the meeting a very friendly and care-free affair.

FARMER'S COLUMN—

By R. J. Milligan

How many of you farmers have seen the grass plots on the W.L.D. property or those on the Stoodley farm? If you haven't done so, do it at once.

All the above plots have reacted to conditions as we expected. The two on irrigated land are rugged and growthy. Surprising as it may seem the dry land plots are exceptional and some of the grasses grew better than was expected. Reference here is made to Timothy and Reed Canary Grass.

The farmers tributary to the Stoodley farm should make a special effort to study the plot on this farm. The Crested Wheat grass and Creeping Red Fescue are very good. I did not expect the Fescue to stand up so well under drought conditions, but it did very well. Several years will have to elapse before final judgement can be passed. The best mixture was the Crested Wheatgrass, Bromo, Timothy, and the following legume alfalfa, Sweet Clover and Alsike Clover. This mixture was 26 inches high, thick and heavy. It was estimated the yield of hay 1d place it at 1½ to 2 tons per acre.

All the plots were fertilized. That on the Stoodley farm had 11-48 placed on the east third, with 16-20 on the west third, the centre third being unfertilized. Field observation would indicate that it is an economical practice to fertilize hay fields, particularly with 11-48.

These plots were weeded, otherwise they would have no special care. The plots on irrigated land are scattered alfalfa each season and showed the advantage of the irrigation. These plots indicate the advantages from both fertilizer and irrigation. Here, the mixture of loving plants like Timothy and Reed Canary Grass grew profusely. Again the mixture of Crested Wheatgrass, Bromo and Timothy with Alfalfa, Sweet Clover and Alsike are the heaviest and would give the highest yield of hay or pasture.

The W.L.D. placed a plot to grass that made two tons to the acre this summer. The rate of seeding on this plot was up to 22 pounds per acre. This rate is not always recommended, yet on this plot of land referred to, this rate was necessary and beneficial. All the experimental plots were seeded at the rate of 10 to 14 pounds per acre.

If you are in doubt as to what grass or legume to grow, visit one of the plots and see for yourself.

which augurs well for the winter season.

The Concert and Dance Friday, August 15, is an ambitious undertaking. It is hoped that all members, together with their families, will attend this excellent entertainment.

WEDDING

BUDNER—EASTON

Strathmore Anglican Church was the scene of an afternoon wedding on July 19, when Alice Laura, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Trent of Carleton Place, became the bride of Mr. Nicholas Budner, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Budner of Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Rev. D. A. Ford, officiated. The day also marked the 30th Wedding Anniversary of the bride's parents.

Entering the church on the arm of her uncle, Mr. J. Haggood of Calgary, the bride looked very pretty wearing a floor length gown of heavy white broadcloth satin, fashioned with a full skirt fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline. The only jewelry was a strand of pearls and ear rings to match. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Martha Kaiser of Husar, was dressed in a floor length gown of pale blue sheer with matching headress. She carried a bouquet of pink and rose carnations.

Mr. Ernest Hoffman of Calgary was best man. Mr. Alfred Trent, brother of the bride, and Mr. Jack Perroux of Calgary acted as ushers.

After the reception, which was held at the home of the bride's parents, the bride and groom left for Calgary, later leaving for Winnipeg on their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Budner will reside in Calgary.

AFA ENDORSES INCREASED ELEVATOR CHARGE

Unanimous endorsement was given the proposed increase in charges for handling and storing grain, by an executive meeting of the Alberta Federation of Agriculture held in Calgary recently.

Taken into account in arriving at this decision was the factor that the grain handling organizations, have through their efforts, been instrumental in reducing charges on all grain. Along with the reduction of price spreads and storage charges, this has increased the net return to the farmer.

Now that costs of operating are going up, it is logical to assume, the executive felt, that there should be an increase in the handling and storage charge required.

Do Do's And Don't Do's

The other day reading exchanges we noticed that another small town with a new swimming pool has posted and published a long list of rules for the behaviour of patrons of the pool, in an effort to keep good order at the swimming pool.

All of this may be a far cry from the swimming pool in Strathmore, but it reminded us of the effort made by the Community Council again this season to maintain safe swimming conditions at the swimming pool, through providing a supervisor who also doubles as an instructor. It made us wonder about the number of parents who have given much thought to the matter, and how many would feel a good deal less confident were there no supervisor present.

Wondering on from there we wondered how many parents, or citizens, have done anything to show the thought they have given. How many of them have scolded down to the pool, just to see how the kiddies are doing, their own kiddies, and others.

too. How many have done anything beyond buying a season ticket to help maintain a supervisor at the pool. How many have bothered to find out if the pool is maintained only by selling season tickets.

For those who have taken no great interest, and more certainly for those who are interested, the Swimming Pool committee of the Community Council is arranging an aquatic sports meet in a couple of weeks. Here will be a dandy opportunity to see just how much a supervisor is worth, just how much it means to have a guiding hand in charge of the play of these youngsters, and just how much they have learned in the water in a season.

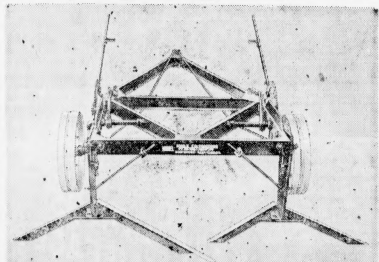

We hope that this aquatic event will receive a great deal of support from the community, in order to assure continuation of this sport.

Convincing Proof

Read the following unsolicited letter:
Noble Cultivators,
123-4th Ave., North,
NORFOLK, ALBERTA.
Gentlemen:

Some time ago we made moisture tests in our fields comparing moisture penetration in fall bladed stubble fields with those that were untouched. Following are our findings:

Average of 9 tests flax stubble fall bladed—27 in. moisture.

Average of 9 tests flax stubble not fall bladed—21 in. moisture.

Average of 9 tests wheat stubble fall bladed—25 in. moisture.

Average of 9 tests wheat stubble not fall bladed—19 in. moisture.

These tests were all made on level ground and I am sure if the ground had been rolling, or if there had been any heavy downpour of rain in the fall, the difference in favor of the fall blading would have been even greater.

Fall blading has proven very beneficial in conserving moisture. We have done it now for four years and find similar results each spring. One year we had up to 13 inches more moisture in bladed than in unbladed land.

Yours truly,

SCOUT MOVEMENTS

The Editor:

Dear Sir:

The Strathmore troop of Boy Scouts returned Saturday from a ten day camp at Jumping Pound. Unfortunately, only four of the local lads were able to attend but these are so enthusiastic about their camping experience that next year a full troop will participate.

The citizens who bought apples on the Scout Apple day made this Camp possible and you are to be congratulated. By your kindness youth has been served and trained. When commitments are being passed out, let's not forget our Scout Master, Chuck, MacLean, who took time off to go with the boys and assist in their training. The success of the winter activities of the Scouts is due to Scout Master Chuck, Assistant Scout Master: Fred Wilkenson and Cpl. S. L. Mott.

The Strathmore troop joined the 12th Scout Troop at Calgary and the local lads are full of praise for the 12th troop boys who made our lads feel very much at home.

George Palardy took both troops to Jumping Pound by truck and returned them safely.

HUSSAR NOTES

By Mrs. M. C. B.

The returns from the Hussar Mobile Survey have just been received; the number X-rayed 426, number of films spoiled 1, number interpreted 425, Negative, 411, abnormal 14.

It is very important that those persons who received letters asking them to seek further examination, do so, in order that the diagnoses may be established. As you have co-operated so far, please do this for yourselves and for the sake of all others in the community. It was a splendid thing to have the Mobile X-ray Unit survey here, July 21 and 22; and to make the best of it, we should be sure to follow up this by an examination by your physician; so that all abnormalities may be corrected and cured as soon as possible.

There was a very light rain here on Saturday evening; the first since June 29.

The Hussar Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. W. A. Treacy on Thursday, August 14. It is hoped that there may be a good attendance. Church services will be resumed here on Sunday, August 17, with Rev. D. Flint officiating. Every one interested to attend; in the School house at 3:00 p.m.

Under The Street Lamp

by PAT O'HOOLEY

On being asked how she managed to keep so young, an old Negro said: "When I works, I works hard; when I sits, I sits loose; an' when I worries, I goes to sleep."

Mrs. Folk: "Do you have a speaking acquaintance with the woman next door?"

Mrs. May: "Speaking acquaintance? Why we know each other so well we don't speak at all."

A maid I know is very shy
And praise to her is due,
But when it comes to telling age
She's shy a year or two.

Bill Craig: "Red McDougal and I are taking a trip through the Badlands next week. Bill's taking along a gallon of whiskey, for rattlesnake bites."

Eldon Bonitz: "And what are you taking?"

B. C.: "Two rattlesnakes."

OLIVE POTTER: "Don't you think there's something brutal about the animal circus?"

Oliver Bower: "Yes, the price of the tickets."

Immigration Officer: "How many children have you?"

Immigrant: "Three boys and two girls."

Officer: "Five altogether?"

Immigrant: "No, one at a time. We're not Canadians."

THE FACTS OF LIFE

Consider the bee. Though I'd not be a slanderer,
I really think he is an insect philanthropist.

And in his sort of life is futility seen—
Just follow me, chum, if you'd see what I mean.

Though he buzzes up boldly to Rose or Daisy,
He doesn't stay long their beauty to praise, he

Flies on to Lily, whom he'll soon forget
To spend to a rendezvous with Violet!

It is also true that this tickle young flirt!
Desert black-eyed Susan in favor of Myrtle!

Then tiring of that you'll soon find him very Contentedly making a call on Rosemary.

Thus, in such trifling, he spends all his days,
And you know and I know that this never pays.

So the pay-off is this: Though the bee has much fun, he Dies very young—some one else gets the honey!

You can get anything but a third hand through the Want Ads in the Standard.

JINNAH HEADS PAKISTAN BODY

Karachi, Aug. 11, (M. S. Jinnah), leader of the Muslim League, was unanimously elected president of the Pakistan constituent assembly today as it began the work of drafting a charter for the projected Muslim Indian dominion of the British Empire.

Jinnah, who also is governor-general of Pakistan, pledged that the new state would be organized "on the fundamental principle that all its citizens are equal" and promised that there would be no discrimination against anyone.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

Practically every successful man I have ever met radiates an attitude of self-confidence.

It is safe to assume, therefore, that without this attitude, it is almost impossible to get ahead in the world. So the ambitious man who realizes this fact will, by erect posture, clear speaking voice and firm stride, try to convey an impression of his self-confidence through outward appearance. And this in turn will help generate his self-confidence inwardly.

But one must be careful never to appear cocksure. This causes people to shy away from you. Furthermore, it is invariably the pose of the man who does not know as much as he would like you to think he does.

So try to express your self-respect in a manner that reflects confidence mixed with a large portion of modesty.

A man's feeling of self-confidence is increased by the financial independence that comes from owning Life Insurance. No other investment provides the security enjoyed by life insurance policyholders and their families.

FOR CHEVROLET

WHEN people are pleased it's natural for them to say "thank-you". But never, apparently, have any car owners been so pleased as those lucky enough to own a 1947 Chevrolet. Their enthusiastic "thank-you" letters stream in from every nook and cranny of the Dominion—from fleet operators and businessmen, from purchasers in every trade and occupation. And each letter says in a different way—"I know now from experience that Chevrolet's proud boast is true—only Chevrolet offers Big Car Quality at Low Cost!"

• The growing demand for the New Chevrolet is setting an all-time record. We cannot hope for many months to fill all the orders pouring in. If you are among the many who have set your sights on Chevrolet's Big Car Quality at Low Cost, we suggest that while you wait, you rely on your Chevrolet Dealer's service to keep your present car running smoothly and safely.

GEORGIA FIRM OFFERS 'PARKING' INSURANCE

A Marietta insurance firm has found a novel way to win friends and influence potential customers.

Its representatives carry a pocketful of loose change. They deposit a coin in the parking meter every time they discover a motorist has left his car parked too long.

But of course they don't conceal their thoughtfulness and generosity.

On the windshields they leave a card which says:

"We noticed your time had run out, so we deposited another coin to insure you against getting a ticket. We can insure you against almost any other kind of loss. Drop in and see us."

The insurance salesmen do a pretty thorough job too. There are few tickets issued in this county seat.

- Foreign Letter -

Dear Sir:

Last week, this LETTER was devoted to a discussion of the background to Britain's present crisis. The ensuing 10 paragraphs, extending this analysis, are concerned with the immediate.

OFFICIAL:

The crisis is definitely no newspaper affair. Last week, roughly coincident with Sir Stafford Cripps' visit to Undersecretary Clayton in Paris, Washington received what amounted—under all the "diplomatic language"—to formal notification that Britain's alternatives were only two: Either the United States now undertakes to tide the Commonwealth over 1948 (estimated $1-to-$2 billion), or Britain must withdraw her convertibility and non-discriminatory (Article 9) "promises".

CRISIS:

The foregoing goes far beyond the stories coming from Paris as a result of the Clayton-Cripps and Clayton-Douglas meetings; but, as this Letter has repeatedly stressed, not beyond the realities. Convertibility has placed an intolerable strain on British dollars —despite British Treasury assertions, often repeated, that this would not occur. In other ways too (food, raw materials) her dollar expenditures have been high. British exports remain discouragingly weak, particularly to the dollar area, hence the take is trifling. All this added up to a crisis, sooner or later. Nevertheless, Washington officials confronted by the recent notes are startled by their gravity—that the situation, so soon, is so bad now.

WHY NOW?

It is significant that criticism of Mr. Attlee ranges from the furthest Left to the furthest Right. A composite London view of this latest crisis starts by nothing that the gap between the date of the Loan's exhaustion and the earliest possible aid under the Marshall proposal cannot conceivably be filled by drawing on the gold-and-dollar reserves. It is being asked why this evident truth has only just come to light. "Why is the crisis today, rather than last month or next?"

PRESSURE:

The policy of taking shelter only after the downpour is well under way, critics note, is not confined to Mr. Dalton's Treasury. The Attlee Government now talks of "a combination of several adverse circumstances", with an air of injured surprise, as dictating the steps which the Prime Minister will outline tomorrow. The facts are that the present twelfth-hour examination of the state of the nation was forced upon the Labor regime largely by its own leftward members. It was their demand for a cut in military manpower which brought Montgomery home and precipitated today's events. "For a group of back-benchers they certainly have weight."

COALITION:

But some part of the Socialist program may have to be abandoned temporarily, and some nationalization projects shelved for the time. This may delight the Conservatives, but not to the point of Coalition. Some of the latter party members are openly predicting a bipartite Government—but the leaders still believe that no one but a fool would want to be in power now.

SIGNIFICANTLY, even the liberal Spectator (London) now warns that, if Labor has no positive plan for economic control, the damage it will do to its own future as well as to that of Britain as a whole will take years to repair.

A RECENTLY PUBLISHED BOOK, "Japan Wins the War", presents details of the Japanese undertaking. Specific Japanese documents are cited to prove that the Japs turned over to the Indonesians the Javanese "Freedom Fund"; that in September, 1945 (after the surrender in Tokyo Bay) the Jap commander in Java handed over remaining military supplies to the revolutionary group. "The fuse was lit—the invaders withdrew."

SUCCESS:

With relatively slight bloodshed, the Dutch have succeeded in recovering control of the two economic essentials of the East Indies—the ports of Java and the bulk of the rice supplies. Their intention, at least as officially stated, is to proceed with the interrupted effort to facilitate the establishment of a peaceful Indonesian government. "There can be no return to colonialism, either in substance or in form." The future Federation of Indonesia (consisting of the three independent states—the Republic, East Indonesia and Borneo) is to stand on its own feet. The later two states, it might be noted, have organized peacefully; and have already succeeded, very largely, in restoring their peacetime economies.

CZECH PROSPECTS:

Under the new pact, Russia offers Czechoslovakia, over the next two years, 400,000 tons of cereals—sufficient to cover the needs of the whole country for two months—and some 200,000 tons of raw materials. In return for these "concessions", the Czechs must send 50% of their industrial output to Russia.

COMMUNIST MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR NOSEK boasts that, as a result of these "advantageous" terms, Czechoslovakia did not have to sell her independence at Paris. The facts are very different. Normally, Czechoslovakia imports fully one-third of her cereal requirements. Therefore, despite Russian "generosity," she will have to find outside sources, or reduce rations. Exactly the same condition applies to raw materials, since the quantities to be supplied by Russia will barely cover Czech requirements for one of the two years in question.

BRITISH EXPORTERS ARE ASTONISHED

and riled by well-authenticated reports that Scotch whiskey, exported to New York at roughly $1.50 a bottle—for consumption in the United States—is being reshipped to South American markets and offered at prices as high as $20 a bottle.

It is sensible to buy or sell used articles. The cost of classified advertising is small, but the results are big.

NURSING ASSOCIATION CALLS FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

A call for graduating high school students to enter the nursing profession was sounded this week by the Alberta Association of Registered Nurses. There are eleven hospitals in Alberta training nurses, and there is room for every applicant able to meet requirements.

Minimum education requirements go as low as 67 high school credits, as long as certain units are included. All high school principals have complete lists of the basic requirements.

CANOL SOLD

Announcement was made recently in Washington that the Canol refinery, costly wartime experiment in Alaska, had been sold to Imperial Oil of Toronto, for $1,000,000 in American funds. It is thought that much of the material will be moved to Edmonton where a refinery is to be built. Original cost of the material was over $20 millions, and of the entire project an estimated 140 millions.

"A Personal Message"

This is a request for greater support for Alberta Pool Elevators in the 1947-48 crop year.

The Alberta Wheat Pool is an Alberta farmers' co-operative organization. It happens that I am chairman of the board of directors. I am a working farmer like yourself. Having been chosen to head this organization, I am doing my best to make it a success.

Every bushel of grain delivered to an Alberta Pool Elevator makes an important contribution to the farm co-operative movement.

The farm co-operative movement is the greatest and most effective effort in self-help.

If you are not a patron of Alberta Pool Elevators, I ask you to be one. If at all possible, deliver your grain this season to a Pool elevator. Let us make this Alberta grain co-operative an outstanding success and a monument to the enterprise, solidarity and co-operative spirit of Alberta farmers.

BEN S. PLUMER,
Chairman, Board of Directors,
ALBERTA WHEAT POOL.
